

What Some people do nothing... and that's a mistake.

If you've been busy and productive all your life, you can't turn it off. Retirement should be more than just not working.

does a If you're over 55 and haven't given much careful thought to your retirement years, then Unity's got the program for you! It's a unique seminar series called "Planning Your Future." It's retired absolutely free, and includes both one-to-one counseling and informal group discussions covering a wide range of personal and financial problems.

person Seminars are regularly scheduled at all Unity locations. However, if you feel your co-workers would also be interested, ask your company benefits manager to call Unity. We will be happy to arrange seminars at your plant or office whenever you wish, free of charge.

do Whether you'd like to come to Unity, or you have a group that wants Unity to come to them, call 625-0200, all day? ext. 47, for reservations and information.
